

House Resolution No. 725

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens or distinguished themselves through significant personal achievement; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Rajaye Smith, a student from Caruthersville, Missouri, who has earned the distinction of being named a participant in the Missouri 4-H Legislative Academy; and

Whereas, the son of Lassandra Smith, Rajaye Smith has previously been distinguished by serving on the Committee for the Summers at the Mizzou Entrepreneurship Camp; and

Whereas, Rajaye Smith is a member of the Lincoln University Extension and Regional Representative of the Missouri State 4-H Council; and

Whereas, representatives from Missouri 4-H will gather at the State Capitol in Jefferson City to share their opportunities and experiences with legislators, community groups, and friends during the week of February 18, 2008, and the 4-H Legislative Academy has brought these groups together to provide hands-on experience for youth interested in promoting 4-H programs to the heart of Missouri government; and

Whereas, while in Jefferson City, the 4-H Legislative Academy will meet with leaders from state agencies including the Department of Agriculture, Department of Corrections, Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, and the Department of Health:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the efforts of Rajaye Smith, with our best wishes for a beneficial visit to the State Capitol and for every success in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Rajaye Smith.
